Top Ten "Must See" Spots at Heritage!

- The J.K. Lilly III Automobile Gallery: Explore Heritage's superb collection of antique cars that illustrate the evolution of the automobile. Check out examples of early electric vehicles and their chargers in a special exhibit.
- The McGraw Family Garden of the Senses: Engage all your senses in this colorful, accessible, and tranquil garden area that includes a boardwalk, water features, and a 200+ year old windmill.
- The Hydrangea Gardens: Stroll through the Cape Cod Hydrangea Society Display Garden and the North American Hydrangea Test garden to learn more about this iconic plant.
- The Labyrinth: Relax, meditate, and commune with nature under the trees as you travel this winding pathway.
- The Special Exhibitions Gallery: Immerse yourself in Impressionist New England: Four Seasons of Color and Light, an exhibit of both historical and contemporary paintings inspired by New England's landscapes, its people, and its glorious light.
- Wetu, Three Sisters Garden, and mush8n: Experience a full-sized reproduction of a Wampanoag dwelling, a Wampanoag-style vegetable garden, and a 12' boat you can sit in to learn more about what life was like for the Indigenous people who lived here pre-colonization.
- Hidden Hollow: Splash, move, play, climb, create, explore, and more in this outdoor discovery area.
- Outdoor sculpture throughout the grounds: Discover bold, colorful artworks that are part of Alfred Glover in the Garden, a solo show featuring work by this local artist.
- The McInnis Garden: This magical round garden features pollinator-attracting plants. Here, you'll find many butterflies of Cape Cod and plantings for native bees.
- The American Art & Carousel Gallery: Enjoy a ride on the 1908 Looft carousel and view a variety of folk art and everyday objects made by Cape Codders in the Heritage Highlights exhibit.
